A chorus of sophistication & charm surround this Tudor home. The front cottage style garden bubbles with the orchestra of flowers that change with the seasons & combines a plethora of plants into a horticultural concerto.

2 4225 Plymouth Drive
Joseph Lanese, a developer, designed & built the French Style Tudor home in 1930. The simplicity of the front landscape doesn't hint at the backyard treasures. The Homeowner's love of curves is evident in the design of the Garden beds which are a tribute to the beauty & variety of the perennial plants available to gardeners in Northeast Ohio. The semi shaded gardens provide a welcoming respite for visitors & wild life alike. In the back corner of the yard is a wall that has been constructed with bricks that originally paved Belvoir Blvd. Architectural fragments from various local buildings have special places in the garden beds.

3 4392 West Anderson Road
You'll be dazzled by a superb collection of blooming perennials & shrubs artfully composed to provide continuous interest throughout the seasons. An outdoor living space in the backyard allows for great entertaining combined with a vegetable & herb garden. A continuous work in progress, the homeowners love to keep changing the view with the seasons.

4 1095 Homestead Road
Here is a unique gardener's interpretation of a unique garden. A collection of statuary & yard art is interspersed throughout the beds.Flowering perennials & shrubs help ground the view. With several iron benches & chairs, take a break & enjoy the special pieces of this landscape quilt.

5 4078 Elmwood Road
This charming corner Tudor duplex has something for every season. Starting with the azaleas & rhododendrons that happily transitions us into spring. Colorful Hydrangeas beckon you around the side where plantings of ferns & Hosta await your arrival. Then you'll savor the treasures that await behind the fence. Hmm, one can only imagine what lie within!

6 1190 Argonne Road
Decibel levels rise & fall with the exciting perennials that encircle this yard. This duplex has a parade of plantings dotting the yard & give you more thrills than a roller coaster. Here is an example of two different households working together to amplify each other's plantings.

7 1191 Piermont Road
Wow what one can do with a minimal amount of space! Perennials do a joyful dance with annuals & garden art at every turn. Every nook & canny will put a smile on your face. The experience culminates with a pond & waterfall!

8 1203 Homestead Road
This Japanese-style garden combines the basic elements of plants & rocks with simple clean lines to artfully create a tranquil sanctuary. Conifers provide shades of green for year-round interest. Some echo the pyramidal form of the pagoda while others frame the feature with their low branches.

9 1195 Berwick Lane
This small backyard garden is truly a woodland oasis. A 3 foot sculpture of two lovers embracing is hidden in a beautiful backdrop of hydrangea, roses, & japonica. While whimsical art objects dotted with several potted plants dance joyfully in the patio area where you can enjoy the highlight of their garden. Beyond the fence is the serene setting provided by the woods, which are dominated by both majestic oak & maple trees. This shady sanctuary is home for numerous species of birds & animals, which of course includes deer. Come enjoy the sights and sounds of nature!

10 1199 Berwick Lane
The front & side perennial beds are a work in progress. The rustic setting of the dense forest along a tributary of Euclid Creek in the backyard provides a calming backdrop. Several huge cherry trees were harvested last year & the wood was cured & fashioned into a lovely deck overlooking the creek & three beehives. Pause a moment & enjoy the deck!

11 1203 Berwick Lane
A fusion of different sources of inspiration from years of travel, this restful haven is planted in the cottage style. The shady front gardens are a flowing eclectic collection of trees, shrubs, perennials & container plants. Layered plantings of roses & upwards of 100 containers beautify the home's side garden. A repurposed children's playset in the backyard holds plantings of sweet autumn clematis & climbing hydrangea. Clematis interspersed with roses along the double decks offer a late season view of the ravine & the joining of two water sources. Kick back & enjoy a lazy afternoon!

12 1207 Berwick Lane
As you approach the garden you're greeted with a colorful display of plantings that seem to wave a welcoming hello. Annuals & perennials are nestled amid lots of novelties & potted plants which escort you along the garden path. As you walk through the back gate, you'll pass by plantings of iris & hosta to name only a few of the goodies that lie within. Two amazing raised decks surround an inviting heated in-ground pool, with lots of colorful potted planters & flowers. At the rear is the beautiful flowing Euclid Creek.

13 1208 Berwick Lane
Located on a quiet cul-de-sac, the unusual setting of this garden, with hills & valleys all in one property, provides an opportunity to showcase a multitude of flowers, shrubs & trees. A vast array of horticultural species is showcased using a variety of design techniques. Raised beds, retaining walls, dry alpine & moist woodland settings are all incorporated into this luscious landscape. It all starts at the intimate entrance with lush verdant foliage & ends with sunny practical raised beds along the driveway. Get ready to take notes.

14 1284 Argonne Road
The perennial front garden gives way to several "no water" vegetable plots which provides for the family throughout the season. What isn't consumed by early fall is either canned, dehydrated or frozen for the winter months. Although deer camp out, the crops are protected & thrive. Yummm!!!

15 1285 Argonne Road
Come enjoy a cheery corner garden that features colorful low-maintenance perennials. In the side garden, vegetables & flowers enjoy each other's company, as well as, the periodic visitor, raccoons, deer & groundhogs. Neighbors often call to notify them of unwanted visitors!

16 1320 South Green Road
Vibrant flowers & opulent foliage are happily nestled in every nook & cranny in this corner garden. The rhythmic flow of the front yard embraces onlookers. Tiered beds of richly layered plantings rise up to direct visitors to view the garden along the side. A peak into the back yard reveals a pond creatively tucked into a shady corner. Marvel at the ingenious use of space as an impressive array of vegetation happily co-exists.

17 4162 Ardmore Road
The traditional sunny landscape in the front keeps secret the shady backyard area. A "Three Whiskey Barrel" fountain provides a calming backdrop to a secluded patio. Throughout the garden, you will discover "recycled" décor neatly tucked into the perennial plantings including a repurposed swing set turned into an expandable playhouse for the grandchildren. Your journey culminates at the greenhouse designed & built to simulate one seen at Gales Garden Center. It definitely pays to be creatively handy!

18 4165 Delroy Road
What a difference a few plants can make! Perennials & annual do a joyful two step in this cute front yard garden. Come dance among the flowers.

19 1320 Argonne Road
The "fullness of joy" was named by the homeowner's father 35 years ago & is a loving tribute to him. Casual exuberance & charm captive garden visitors the moment you glimpse a dwarf Lilac, Sedum & the variety of Iris that grace the front garden. After strolling along "Sedum Row," you'll pass under a Trumpet Vine into the secret backyard garden. The love of Daylilies, Hosta, Lilies, miniature gardens & art objects abound throughout numerous rooms which escort guests to the Japanese-inspired garden.

20 1315 Argonne Road
A traditional landscape in the front features natural plantings where textures, foliage & verdant hues add visual interest throughout all four seasons. Trees, shrubs & perennials elegantly grace the shady back patio. The perfect place to relax or entertain!

21 1342 Avondale Road
This cottage style garden says, "come in and wander." This laissez-faire garden is only slightly tamed. Rudbeckia, Sedum & Daylilies have been added to bring continuous sparks of color & interest to this organized chaos. This time saving method has reduced the amount of weeding & watering.

22 1333 Avondale Road
This delightful corner lot is truly a labor of love. The front garden has serpentine plantings of Ferns & Hosta that continue along the side to the back deck, which is where most gardens would end. However, the real surprise is tucked behind the garage, nestled in a shady corner.
What an amazing revelation!

23 4182 Delroy Road
Two sidewalk corner gardens welcome you to this quaint garden experience. Be sure to notice detail tucked neatly throughout!

24 1359 Victory Drive
Quite a cozy place to relax & entertain friends, families & neighbors. The home will be 100 years old in 2019 & was once an old mill house belonging to the Frank Schnell family. To help with screening, the use of large oaks, maples & elms truly give it a park-like setting. The garden beds have been highlighted with rocks found from the area & with a brick patio. Backyard beds are filled with rhododendrons, hostas, hydrangeas, Japanese maples & flowering plants. An arch with a climbing clematis & colorful containers accent the patio which sports two umbrella tables. Guess which one was made from recycled materials!

25 4614 South Lyn Circle
A private secluded garden on this cul-de-sac provides a quite respite from the troubles of the day. With Euclid Creek in the background, gurgling water drowns out the sounds of the city. Rustling grasses sway in the breeze & hypnotizes one with their movement. Other plantings add splashes of color & interest. A front porch affords a stage to watch & listen.

26 4626 South Lyn Circle
The backyard perennial garden is a sight to behold. The garden is planted for minimal upkeep. Quite the backdrop for this woodland setting!

27 1399 Avondale Road
This charmingly different take on an English garden exudes personality & is truly a shared endeavor of the homeowners. The front yard is an endless sea of perennials with the archetypical picket fence. The floriferous plantings create a kaleidoscope of colors featuring a vibrant Smokebush. Even a curb side flower bed has been added. This is truly an ever-evolving work of art!

28 1515 South Belvoir Blvd
A classic home & garden. Juxtaposed to the classicism is contemporary glass sculptures interspersed throughout the landscape, reflecting the personalities of the homeowners. Culminating in the backyard, a personable & inviting patio is to be found. Guests can enjoy the manmade lush plantings contrasting with Mother Nature's plantings in the natural wooded area that lies beyond the garden. Truly a treasure to behold!

29 1533 Maplegrove Road
This colonial-style home sits in a well manicured front yard. The backyard is flush with Ferns & other varieties of vegetation & features a pond & wishing well. A statue of a deer stands guard over the pond while benches provide a respite for quiet meditation. Hosta plants line the borders & hanging planters provide multi-hued embellishments. Angel ornaments have a special meaning to the homeowner & add to the serenity & beauty of this garden.

30 1573 Maplegrove Road
This circa 1929, two-story, Sears English cottage-style home boasts two trees in the front landscape: Crimson Frost Birch & Sunburst Honeylocust. The homeowner, tired of lawn maintenance, created several beds surrounding the trees & bordering the yard. Pachysandra was allowed to spill out from under the front deck. The backyard's park-like setting also sports several beds with Ivy filling in the open spaces. The rear of the yard is now home to a weeping spruce & other specimens. Another bed camouflages roots from a Maple tree.

31 1573 South Belvoir Blvd
Here's another example of a gardener's unique perspective on life. A fine example of a skillfully-constructed arbor enhances the gorgeous roses, lilies & reflective statuary. Featured in the front garden, these items reflect the homeowners' cultural heritage.

32 1600 South Belvoir Blvd
Built into a hillside, a small garden by the side street greets visitors accented with a sturdy stone wall & plantings of flowers & small shrubs. Behind the 1950's ranch, is a newer patio with two rock retaining walls supporting a collection of hostas. On the patio, containers are potted up with different herbs, geraniums & hot weather-resistant flowers.

33 1616 South Belvoir Blvd
A collection of ornamental grasses greets visitors as they enter this garden. Different colors, shapes & sizes proves that grasses are definitely not boring. Assorted rocks line the edges of the planting areas differentiating the landscape grasses from the lawn grass. Natural rock is placed in formations to add height & interest to the view.

34 4222 Bexley Blvd
Ever wonder what type of garden a busy young family with literally "zero" time should construct? This yard is a perfect example of what can be done. The front trees & perennial plantings compose a striking front view with a backsplash of mulch. The rhythmic flow of the side garden takes visitors to a low-maintenance rear garden that sports a relaxing deck. Why have a ho-hum yard? Here's a real stand out eye catcher!

35 4231 Bexley Blvd
Who said a front garden full of vegetables isn't pretty? Marry them with perennials & you have a winning combination. Plus they're quite appetizing!

36 1776 South Green Road
This Cape Cod style home, nicknamed "the estate" is almost an acre. It's landscaped with a natural border of shrubs & trees which lends a park-like feeling. Cool fountains & original art are integrated into the perennial landscape. A full time artist, the active studio / garage, which opens with front & back doors is full of painted tools & other whimsical embellishments.

37 1876 Langerdale Road
This quaint garden brandishes a shady demeanor. A traditional landscape of thoughtfully chosen plants & artifacts reflect the rustic feel of neighboring homes. The perennial front & side gardens give way to the colorful containers used as spotlights that line the back deck & contrast with the natural setting surrounding the backyard. This serene setting beckons visitors to stay awhile!

38 1884 Oakmount Road
A tribute to our military services welcomes guests to this labor of love. Meticulous attention to detail is reflected in the precise plantings of annuals & perennials. Ornamental grasses are also a part of this setting.

39 1897 Oakmount Road
A tale of two cities reflects the design of this garden. A horticulturalist has amassed a collection of unusual plants. Cacti & succulents are featured. The unusual shapes, thorns, & spines are quite in contrast to a traditional garden. These water-wise plants are in sharp contrast to the meadow garden at the rear of the lot. The visual softness of the grasses & plants stand out against the visual ruggedness of the cacti & succulents.

40 1936 South Green Road
Sanctuary On Green, situated on a former 19th & 20th century Jerusalem artichoke farm that was originally over 25 acres, the home in which the restaurant & gift shop are housed was built in 1910 by entrepreneur Fred Langer & his wife Rosemary. The 140-year-old barn now houses the studio of sculptor Norbert Koehn an award-winning & nationally renowned sculptor. In 2009, Victoria & Norbert opened the first residential home restaurant in Cuyahoga County. Overlooking the Nine Mile Creek wetlands' spectacular view, the landscape is embellished with natural beauty offering an eco-friendly, peaceful & spiritually uplifting experience. They serve healthy lunches in their home studio & on the terrace overlooking the wetlands. Relax & enjoy the restaurant which features over 100 loose-leaf teas, all micro-brewed & served either hot or iced. Or enjoy a healthy meal or dessert as you look out over the breath-taking view. Then experience a meditative walk in the gardens & savor the treasures of Norbert Koehn who brings an understated sophistication to each project, always resulting in an elegant interpretation of both sacred & secular themes sprinkled throughout the gardens. The home is a special place where gifts can be selected in a classic European setting. The gardens will be open both Saturday & Sunday. The restaurant will be open from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm & the gift shop from 11:00 am to 5:30 pm on Saturday only. Both will be closed on Sunday.
It is a must see experience!

41 3861 Eastway Road
This quaint corner venue is quite warm & inviting. The landscaped stone garden features fruit trees, flowering bulbs, shrubs, ferns & Blue Spruce. Maybe you'll see birds enjoying the feeders & baths!

42 2019 Laurel Hill Drive
This double lot is a masterful use of space. The front garden accentuates the home's stone architecture. The side lot features a living structure of 3 tree stumps of varying height, vines, containers & a black brass headboard. Even after the blossoms have long faded this inner sanctuary is a sight to behold!

43 4533 Mackall Road
"A Garden Wedding" is a step back in time to the homeowners' daughter's wedding. As you stroll through the perennial gardens you can almost hear the chatter of the many guest. Wow, what one can do with a garden!

44 4516 Greenwold Road
An example of neighbors working together to create a garden oasis!

45 4520 Greenwold Road
Wow! So the experience continues!

46 4524 Greenwold Road
Various perennial plantings grace the front garden & pique the interest of all who pass by. A glimpse into the backyard reveals the whimsical nature that abounds within. Of course, the center piece is the overflowing rainbow "bottle garden" that shimmers in the noonday sun. Cleverness & ingenuity abound, come experience a bit of the unusual!
