Planning Commission

- 4629 and 4645 Mayfield Road – Museum of American Porcelain Art and the South Euclid/Lyndhurst Historical Society: Conditional Use application; Set date for public hearing

Acting Chairman Tracie Zamiska called the meeting to order at 7:10 p.m. in the Community Room at City Hall. Members present: Megan Blubaugh, Dan Ivins and Tracie Zamiska. Absent: Earl Stovall and Chairman Jason Russell. Also present: Paul Kowalczyk, Building Commissioner.

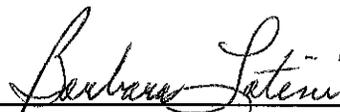

Museum of American Porcelain Art and the South Euclid/Lyndhurst Historical Society - Richard Barone, owner, Kate Barone, daughter and curator, Susan Johnson, assistant to Mr. Barone and Bob McKimm, South Euclid/Lyndhurst Historical Society, were present. Mr. Kowalczyk stated that an application for conditional use was submitted to the Building Department by the Richard A. Barone Charitable Foundation. There is no change in the site plan or the building however a description of how the space will be used would be expected to be presented at the public hearing. Mr. Barone stated that the museum will be unique and will gain national recognition. Pieces have been acquired from the Vatican, different embassies, the Smithsonian, Museum of Modern Art and other museums. Mr. Barone stated that there are no other porcelain museums in the United States however other museums may display porcelain pieces. At the public hearing, the Planning Commission will be concerned about the hours of operation and days of operation, the information about the Historical Society continuing its presence in the building, information about the community event space and the type of community events that may be held at the museum. After some discussion Acting Chairwoman Zamiska set the public hearing for May 14, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. The Planning Commission is required to hold the public hearing and then make a recommendation to City Council.

Ms. Blubaugh made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Mr. Ivins. All ayes. Motion approved. (3-0-0) Meeting adjourned at 7:35 p.m.
