RECLAIMING VACANT PROPERTIES:
the Intersection of Sustainability, Revitalization, and Policy Reform

Dear host committee members and partners:

Once again thank you for your continued commitment to issues concerning vacant property and for your support for bring the Reclaiming Vacant Properties conference to Cleveland this year. Enclosed you will find a few save the date cards to pass out to your partners or colleagues who might be interested in attending. If you should need more cards please send your request to Millie Davis (contact info below). The conference is still months away but it isn't too soon to spread the word.

In addition we would like to encourage our host committee members and partners to consider putting the banner in your newsletter or a link to the conference <http://reclaimingvacantproperties.org> on your website. Any means of getting the word out is greatly appreciated. Electronic save the dates were sent out a few weeks ago, however we are more than happy to send them to you just let us know.

If you should have any questions please don't hesitate to contact myself or Millie at (216) 830-2770 or to make requests by email at mmd@neighborhoodprogress.org. We hope to make this the best vacant properties conference yet!

Thank you,

Bobbi Reichtell
Senior Vice President for Programs
