

GOPC Executive Director: Job Opportunity

The Greater Ohio Policy Center (GOPC) seeks applicants to fill the position of the organization's Executive Director. GOPC, a statewide non-profit organization based in Columbus has established itself as the lead policy, research and advocacy voice in the state advancing revitalization and sustainable development in communities and regions across Ohio.

The Executive Director will lead an organization focused on developing and advancing policies at the state level that align with local needs for economic and community regrowth. Candidates for this position should have a deep passion for the organization's mission as well as the ambition, leadership capacity and vision to continue to advance this highly effective organization.

This position will remain open until filled.

For a complete description of the position and application requirements, please visit our website: <http://greaterohio.org/about-us/job-opportunities>