What is South Euclid MYCOM?

My Commitment. My Community.

South Euclid MyCom is a network of organizations working together to connect South Euclid youth to opportunities in our community and throughout Greater Cleveland. MyCom provides youth leadership programming, employment opportunities, career development, college access and community service.

In South Euclid we are working collectively as a partnership of city, school districts, non-profit organizations and faith based organizations to identify neighborhood values, set goals and establish out-of-school time programming for youth and young adults.

Youth development is community development...

A community must share responsibility for the development of its youth. As the saying goes, "It takes a village to raise a child." South Euclid MyCom is a youth movement in which we demonstrate our commitment to our young people as the future of our community.

Our region needs a highly educated and skilled work force if we are to attract and retain jobs here. It is critical to a thriving local economy. We know that young people prosper when they have positive parenting, education, and experiences in their lives. South Euclid MyCom's role is to deliver positive experiences to kids in our community.

South Euclid MyCom supports young people with programs and services that inspire and prepare them to lead good lives. MyCom's innovative approach helps to "connect the dots" for young people and their families by making it easy to find and access a variety of services all through their youth.

By coordinating with strong community partners, MyCom can offer employment opportunities, out-of-schooltime activities, neighborhood resources, and special help during school transitions to kindergarten, middle school, high school and beyond.

Together, we share a commitment to engage youth as active members in the community and agree to listen to and value the youth voice in developing programs, and partnering to make them happen. Our goal is to provide youth with opportunities to help them become successful, self-sufficient adults who give back to the community.
